

Autistic Support

The Autistic Support classroom is designed for students who are diagnosed with an Autistic Spectrum Disorder or a very similar disorder. It is a safe and nurturing environment with a diverse range of abilities. The important goals of the classroom relate to socialization, communication, and behavior. Students learn real-life situations with hands-on activities taught so that students can be successful at their own achievement level.